Letting the eviction moratorium end, while cities across America ahem LA are criminalizing homelessness is a choice. A very cruel, heartless, and intentional choice.

A couple hundred people showed up at the Capitol at midnight to protest as the eviction moratorium expires.

Thank you to @CoriBush, @AOC, @AyannaPressley and others for pushing this.

Got called a F*gg*t while canvassing today. Transphobia and homophobia exist in LA.

In the United States we don't stay home when we have a legitimate concern and valid reason to protest. Occupying Gov't buildings has been a long accepted practice of protest and our 1st Amendment Rights.

If you justify this killing, you justify all future killings of protestors.

Sorry she died but she wouldn't have had she stayed home
